

TELEGRAPH BRIEFS

Washington.—Solicitor Thurman of the commerce dep't wired collectors of ports in U. S. not to hold up clearance of vessels which had been unable to comply with seamen's act, if investigation showed real effort to comply.

Taylorville, Ill.—Spontaneous combustion in slack pile near Illinois Midland railroad shops started fire which destroyed railroad's round-house, shops and offices.

Cleveland, O., Nov. 4. — Rose De Bartolo, 20-year-old Italian girl, kidnapped by two men and whisked away in automobile while on way to work.

Washington.—One American marine, Private W. L. Dushek, Cleveland, seriously wounded, and five Haitian rebels killed, according to report from Admiral Caperton.

Muncie, Ind.—Fire of unknown origin almost entirely destroyed business district of Red Key, Ind., near here. Eight business buildings and at least one residence destroyed, with loss of probably $100,000.

Berlin, via Sayville Wireless.—Lieut. Stangen, grandson of George Ehret, New York brewer, died of wounds received on battlefield.

Philadelphia.—With returns still trickling in from many counties it was believed today woman suffrage was not defeated by more than 53,000 in Pennsylvania.

New York.—"Shooting craps" has not won approval of supreme court. L. S. Sullivan was ordered to restore $10,500 he won in dice game with broker's employe.

Ossining, N. Y.—Warden Osborne of Sing Sing is to star in movie film entitled "Within the Prison Walls."

Portsmouth, Va. — Fire gutted Christ church, most magnificent Episcopal church in south, entailing $100,000 loss.

Webb City, Mo.—Z. R. Cotton, a blind beggar known as "Reverend," notified he inherited $650,000 from estate of Powell Cotton, his brother, owner of plantation near Richmond, Ark.

London.—Liabilities approximating $1,000,00 with assets of $1,000 scheduled by Duke of Manchester, who married Helen Zimmerman of Cincinnati. Bankruptcy proceedings pending against him.

Washington.—No shaves on Sunday, "by act of congress," is to be sought by barbers' union at coming session.

Washington.—Sculptor is placing new eye, nose and ear on George Washington, whose bust in treasury department fell from its pedestal.

New York.—Crazed from illness, Edward McManus, 31, killed son William and slashed daughter, 2 months, with razor. Suicided.

COPS' CASES CONTINUED

Because Chief Healey himself wishes to appear and testify before Motorcycle Policemen Floyd Wilcox and Jas. Dineen, cases have been continued for two weeks by the police trial board. The men are charged with speeding on Michigan av. when there were no speeders in sight. The board reprimanded Mrs. Anna Murphy, police matron, for squabbles with Mrs. Mary Buttimer, also a matron. Both women preferred charges against the other. Mrs Buttimer was discharged.

PROGRESS

